Bubble Masses

Those who are still shielding because of the virus and so cannot come to mass at the moment, even with the precautions we have in place, may wish to think about arranging to have a "bubble mass". That would be a mass at which only they and the priest will be present.

The number of stewards and sanitisers we have available means that we can have two public masses each week in each church. There remains a day when mass is said but not open to the public. It is this mass that we could arrange to celebrate as a "bubble mass".

Anyone who would like to have this as their bubble mass please contact the parish. To start with we will try this mass at 12 noon on Tuesday. It would also make sense if the person or family who were having that mass as their bubble mass also provided the intention for that mass.

It is always possible of course to have communion brought to you if you are shielding, again contact the parish.
